

DONOVAN THE STAR AS PORT JERSEY CRUSHES QUAKER ST.

ALL-STAR OUTFIELDER BATS 5/8 WITH MULTIPLE RUNS & RBI; P.J. SCORES 14 TIMES IN 3RD

PHILADELPHIA (July 25, 1867) – Port Jersey and Quaker State met for a late-season contest at the Philadelphia Cricket Grounds with both already eliminated from TWC contention. After an even start, P.J. demolished their hosts:

NATIONAL BASE BALL ORGANIZATION

- BAT 20: J. Morehouse hit Fly Out to C off P. Charles
- TOTAL: 20 Batters, 14 Runs, 10 H (2B, 3B), 7 E, 2 PB, 4 BB

Seven errors, four bases on balls, and a pair of passed balls represent no less than thirteen mistakes by Quaker State in the top of the 3rd, the most unforced errors anybody can remember seeing a team make in one half-inning of an NBBO game.

The length of Port Jersey's turn to bat in the 3rd allowed Ed Donovan to reach base three times, part of an excellent day:

- T1: Double past 1B off L. Zimmerman (Run)
- T3: Leadoff Triple to LCF off L. Zimmerman (Run)
- T3: 1-Run Single past SS off L. Zimmerman (Run)
- T3: Reached via run-scoring Error by 3B E. Schenk
- T5: 2-Run Single to CF off P. Charles (Run)
- T6: Single past SS off A. Nagy (Run)
- T7: 1-run Sac Fly to RF
- T9: Reached via run-scoring Error by SS E. Ehnot
- TOTAL: 5/8, 2B, 3B, 5 R, 4 RBI, 8 TB, 91 GMSC

Donovan's day with the bat raised his average to .401 with a week and a half of game action left.

It has been another middling season for Port Jersey, but this afternoon was an afternoon to remember.
