

SHAMROCK HAS FIVE WITH 3+ HITS AT FLOUR CITY

BOSTONIANS BATTER GOODMAN & OTHERS DURING BEST PERFORMANCE OF '77 SEASON

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (Aug. 10, 1877) – With the legendary James Goodman taking the ball, Flour City figured that they'd at least have a good chance to win at home to open their series against Shamrock on Friday afternoon. Instead...

	AMERICAN PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL LEAGUE SHAMROCK BASEBALL CLUB AT FLOUR CITY B.B.C. GAME ID: 2631 - FRIDAY, AUGUST 10TH, 1877 - GAME LOG
		1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
	Shamrock Baseball Club (37-45)	4	3	0	1	1	4	8	0	4	25	27	7
	Flour City B.B.C. (38-44)	1	1	0	6	0	0	0	1	0	9	12	12

Shamrock scored early and often, putting nine Runs (4 ER) and a dozen Hits on Goodman before he left during the fifth innings. The visitors continued to slap around Flour City pitching after Goodman's exit, scoring sixteen more times before finishing with a 25-run, 27-hit outing that should easily stand as their best performance of 1877.

As part of a 27-hit effort, there will be outstanding individual performance, and Shamrock had no shortage of them, with no fewer than five members of their lineup finishing with 3+ Hits on the afternoon:

- SHA #2 William Dickerson (3B): 4/7 (2B, 3B, 7 TB), 2 R, 5 RBI, SB
- SHA #3 Leonard Noble (RF): 4/7 (all 1B), 4 R, 2 RBI
- SHA #5 Charles Washer (LF): 4/7 (2B, 5 TB), 4 R, 5 RBI
- SHA #6 Robert Jessup (SS): 5/7 (3B, 7 TB), 2 R, 4 RBI
- SHA SUB Henry Humphreys (1B): 3/4 (3 2B, 6 TB), 4 R, 3 RBI

Washer earned Player of the Game, but the most impressive performance was perhaps that of Humphreys, who entered for a slightly-injured Frank Bulger in the fourth inning and still had the time to hit three Doubles while scoring four Runs and driving in three more.

With eight games left to play, both Shamrock & Flour City have been eliminated from playoff contention. Flour City is 38-44 and likely to finish 3rd-5th in the Colonial Championship. Shamrock is 37-45 and likely to finish 4th-last.
